

Enable-Mississippi River Transmission Corporation ("MRT")

Open Season Posting

March 1, 2023

Pursuant to Section 5.8(b) of the General Terms and Conditions (GT&C) of MRT's FERC Gas Tariff, MRT is soliciting bids for service to be made available to or from a new point of interconnection for deliveries from the MRT system into the Enable Gas Transmission, LLC (EGT) pipeline system at Glendale, Arkansas effective upon the completion of the facility modifications required to make the MRT-EGT Glendale point bidirectional. The Glendale available delivery point capacity from MRT to EGT up to 100,000 Dth/d. The new delivery point is anticipated to be in service by June 1, 2023. In addition, MRT is hereby providing notice of the potential availability of up to 314,000 Dth/d of firm receipt point capacity from a new receipt point between EGT and MRT in the Perryville Hub. The new receipt point is anticipated to be in service by September 1, 2023. MRT's available pipeline capacity between the new Perryville receipt and the new Glendale delivery point is 232,912 Dth/d and MRT is soliciting bids for firm service utilizing this available capacity through this open season. Customers bidding on the new EGT Perryville Receipt capacity and awarded such capacity through this Open Season may elect to have their primary receipts shifted from the current displacement meter to the new bidirectional EGT Perryville receipt meter upon this new receipt point being placed into service.

All MRT Field Zone receipt points (subject to available capacity at these points) will be eligible as primary receipts to the new Glendale Delivery point

The award of the firm transportation capacity posted herein is subject to all terms and conditions of MRT's FERC Gas Tariff, as amended from time to time. MRT will evaluate and determine, on an objective and non-discriminatory basis, the best bid(s) received in accordance with the Commission's regulations and its tariff, and MRT will consider bids for service from receipt and delivery point combinations that maximize potential revenue. Subject to the posting requirements of Section 5.8 of the GT&C and any regulatory requirements, MRT will use a closed-bid process.

Customers desiring to bid on this capacity must submit bids by 5:00 P.M. March 31, 2023, by e-mailing a completed Request Form, which is attached, to the following:

Mike.Stoll@Energytransfer.com,.

Bids for capacity which include terms and conditions which are inconsistent with MRT's tariff, the terms and conditions set forth in this posting, or the Request Form provided; and/or are submitted via incomplete or incorrectly completed Request Forms, may not be accepted.

Contingent upon the Bidder meeting MRT's creditworthiness standards as set forth in Section 26 of the GT&C, MRT agrees to waive, on a non-discriminatory basis, Section 15(b) of the GT&C, which requires that all valid requests for firm service be accompanied by a prepayment.

Questions regarding this posting or the bid process should be directed to Mike Stoll at (636) 812-7121.
