Consistent with Section 5.8(e) of the GT&C, MRT will evaluate and determine the best bid(s) received based on the incremental revenue expected to be produced, lost, or affected if the request for service is accepted. The determination of incremental revenues to MRT shall be based upon the procedures set forth in Section 5.8(e) of MRT’s GT&C. In addition, MRT shall also take into account the following objective and non-discriminatory factors: operational efficiencies or inefficiencies that would result if the request for service is accepted, backhaul or forward haul transportation characteristics, and the amount of unsold capacity (stranded costs) that would result if the request or aggregated requests are accepted.
